

Rainbow, rainbow

By
Polly Stubbs

Rainbow, rainbow beautiful and
bright high up in the sky.

Rainbow, rainbow glowing with
light, its seven colours shine.

Red comes first so big and bold
like strawberries and cherries
sweet. My tummy rumbles nosily, as it makes me want to eat!

Next comes orange, so colourful-
It looks just right to me, and makes a squelchy, squishy noise
when I hold it tight and squeeze.

Rainbow, rainbow, beautiful and
bright, high up in the sky.

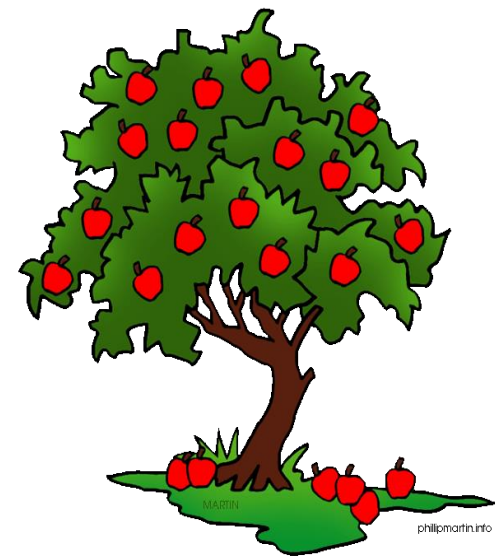

Rainbow, rainbow, glowing with
light, its seven colours shine.

Then here's yellow, like the sun filling up the sky. It warms me up when I feel cold with beams of blazing lights.

And green is next, like juicy
Apples growing on a tree.
I love to eat them in a pie that
Mum bakes for my tea!

Rainbow, rainbow, beautiful and
bright, high up in the sky.

Rainbow, rainbow, glowing with
light, its seven colours shine

Blue and indigo follow on, like waves that crash and roar. Their colours dance in the summer sun, as they move across the shore.

And last is deep rich violet, the deepest in the land. The colour fills the sky right up, like flowers in my hand.

Rainbow, rainbow, beautiful and
bright, high up in the sky.

Rainbow, rainbow, glowing with
light, its seven colours shine.
